Chapter 1.

Down the Rabbit Hole

Alice was tired of¹ sitting near her sister on the bank of the river. She had nothing to do²: once or twice she looked into the book that her sister was reading. But the book had no pictures or conversations in it. "What is the use of a book³," thought Alice "without pictures or conversations?"

She was thinking about making a daisy-chain⁴ but the day was hot and she felt very sleepy and lazy. Suddenly a White Rabbit with pink eyes ran past her.

The Rabbit said to itself "Oh dear! Oh dear, I shall be late!"⁵ Then it took a watch out of his waistcoat-pocket, and looked at it, and hurried on. Alice stood up and burning with curiosity⁶ ran across the field after it. So she was just in time⁷ to see that the Rabbit jumped down a large rabbit hole under the hedge.

¹ was tired of — устала от ...

² She had nothing to do — ей было нечего делать

³ What is the use of a book ... — какая польза от книги...

⁴ daisy-chain — венок из маргариток

⁵ Oh dear, I shall be late! — О Боже, я опоздаю!

⁶ burning with curiosity — умирая от любопытства

⁷ just in time — как раз вовремя

Alice went down after it. The rabbit hole was like¹ a tunnel and then it suddenly went down. It was so sudden that Alice didn't have time to think. And the next moment she was falling down the well². The well was so deep or she was falling so slowly that she had time to look around. She saw cupboards and bookshelves, there were maps and pictures there too. But she was falling down and down. "I must be³ near the centre of the earth," Alice said aloud. "I wonder if I shall fall right through the earth⁴! How funny it will be to see people that walk with their heads down!

Down, down, down. "Dinah will miss me very much, I think!" (Dinah was the cat.) Dinah, my dear!" And Alice felt sleepy when suddenly, thump! And the fall was over — she was on a heap of dry leaves.

Alice jumped up on to her feet and looked up but it was all dark there. The White Rabbit was still hurrying along a corridor. Alice went after him like a wind⁵ and heard the Rabbit say⁶ "Oh my ears and whiskers, how late it is!"⁷ and it turned the corner. She turned the corner

¹ was like — была похожа на

² well — колодец

³ I must be ... — должно быть, я...

⁴ I wonder if I shall fall right through the earth — Интересно, провалюсь ли я сквозь землю?

⁵ went after him like a wind — помчалась за ним словно ветер

⁶ heard the Rabbit say — услышала, как Кролик сказал

⁷ how late it is! — Как поздно уже!

too but couldn't see the Rabbit. She was now in a long hall.

There were doors all around the hall but they were all locked. Suddenly Alice saw a little glass table with a tiny golden key on it. But the locks in all the doors were very large and the key was very small and it couldn't open them. But then suddenly Alice noticed a low curtain with a little door behind it. To her great delight¹ the golden key opened it!

Behind the door was a small corridor which lead² to a very beautiful garden. Alice wanted so much to be among those bright flowers and cool fountains! But even her head couldn't get through the little door. So she went back to the table hoping³ to find another key on it. But this time⁴ she found there a little bottle with a paper label with large letters on it: "DRINK ME".

Alice didn't want to do that in a hurry⁵. Maybe it was poison. But the bottle did NOT say "poison" so Alice tasted it and it was very nice so soon she drank it all.

"What a curious feeling!" said Alice, "I must be shutting up like a telescope"⁶. And now she

² which lead — который вел

³ hoping — надеясь

⁴ this time — в этот раз

⁵ in a hurry — в спешке

⁶ I must be shutting up like a telescope — Должно быть, я складываюсь, как телескоп.

was only ten inches¹ high. And she could go through that little door! But poor Alice! When she was near the door she remembered that the little golden key was on the table. She went back and saw that she couldn't take it from the glass table because she was too small. So she sat down and cried.

"But there is no use in crying²" said Alice to herself and soon she noticed a little glass box under the table. She opened it and found in it a very small cake with the words "EAT ME" in currants. She ate a little bit but nothing happened so very soon she ate all the cake.

Chapter 2.

The Pool of Tears

"Curiouser and curiouser!"¹ — cried Alice (she was so surprised that for the moment she forgot how to speak good English); "now I'm opening out² like the largest telescope! Good-bye, feet!" (she looked down at her feet and they were almost out of sight³). "Oh, my poor little feet, I wonder who will put on your shoes and stockings for you now, dears? I will be too far away. But I will send you a new pair of boots every Christmas. How funny it will seem!"

"Oh dear, what nonsense I'm talking!"

At that moment her head hit the roof of the hall: now she was more than nine feet⁴ high. So she took the little golden key again and hurried to the garden door.

Poor Alice! This time she could look into the garden with only one eye. So she sat down and began to cry again.

² I am opening out — я раскладываюсь

³ out of sight — вне поля зрения

⁴ nine feet — девять футов, 1 фут = 30,48 см

"You must be ashamed of yourself¹," said Alice, "Stop this moment, I tell you!" But she continued crying and soon there was a large pool all around her.

Suddenly she heard some sound in the distance and quickly dried her eyes to see what it was. It was the White Rabbit returning. It was beautifully dressed and had a pair of white gloves in one hand and a large fan in the other. He was in a great hurry saying: "Oh! The Duchess, the Duchess!" Alice needed help so much that when the Rabbit came near her she began in a low voice²: "Please, sir..." The Rabbit jumped up in horror, dropped the white gloves and the fan and ran away into the darkness as fast as it could³.

Alice took the Rabbit's gloves and the fan and began thinking how strange everything was that day. "And yesterday things were just as usual⁴. I wonder if I've been changed during the night⁵. Who am I? That's the great puzzle!" And while she was thinking about that mystery she suddenly noticed that she had put on⁶ one of the Rabbit's white gloves. "How could I do that?" she thought. "Maybe I am growing small

² in a low voice — ТИХИМ ГОЛОСОМ

³ as fast as it could — так быстро, как только МОГ

⁴ things were just as usual — все было как обычно

⁵ I wonder if I've been changed during the night. — Интересно, может, меня ночью подменили.

⁶ she had put on (Past Perfect) — она надела
